About Kylie

I have worked in the financial services industry since 2000. While studying, I started my first job as a superannuation administrator at ING Australia. I progressed in the firm and then onto various roles within the financial services industry including business development, training and relationship management, adviser technology, paraplanning and now as a financial adviser. I joined RI Alderley in 2017 as a Paraplanner and in 2022 I became an equity partner of Siemon Grove Pty Ltd. I am very proud to be part of this business and dedicated to providing the best services to all our clients.

RI Alderley has been in business since 1987. Our first two clients are still our clients today, more than 38 years later. We pride ourselves in building strong relationships and supporting our clients and their families throughout their financial journey in life. Our goal is to help you achieve your objectives and building your legacies whatever that may be. We are committed to be here for the long term.

In 2013, from 2016 to 2020, and in 2022, RI Alderley was recognised as one of the Top 10 practices in our dealer group.
